

GIS- Application : City Planning Database

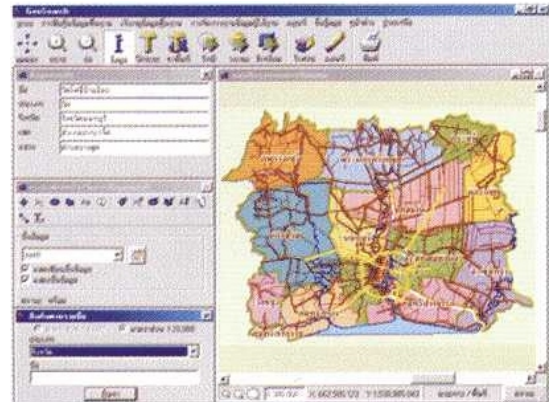

Client: AMR. Asia Co Ltd

Period of Appointment: 2000

AMP Consultants Ltd has been commissioned by AMR. Asia Co Ltd to be the consultant in Traffic and Transport Specialist including Urban Planning and Survey Adviser.

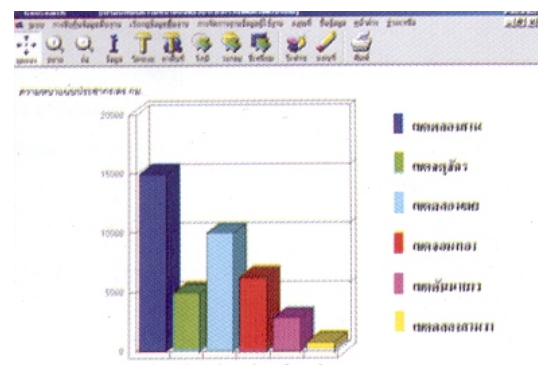

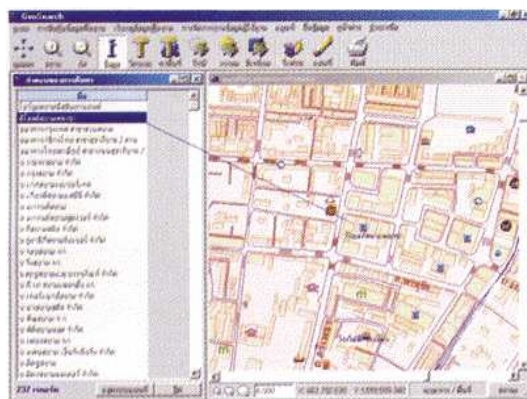

GIS Software Application Package has been developed for the real estate business.

This software is a tool for combining the database together with reference as shown on map. This application can assist to analyze data such as the landmark with influence for business activities, network for transportation and others.

The users can compare the information from the database with their own data or with the secondary data. In addition, the user can modify the digital map for their own works.

The Bangkok digital map is around 1,600 SqKm on scale 1:4,000 and 1:20,000. The details of map data are housing information, land value estimation data with the trend, new road network schemes, city planning area, land acquisition details and population density.