

MIS in Advice on Institutional, Safety and Service Integration Issue

Client:

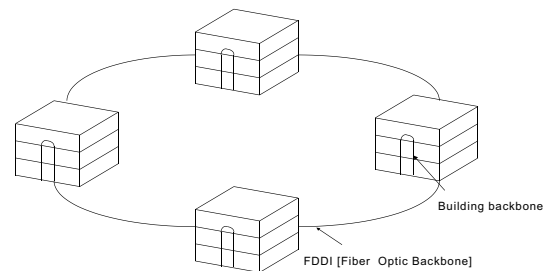

Department of Land Transport, Royal Thai Government

Period of Appointment:

1998 to 1999

The training was also the principle task in this project to strengthen the DLT staff for implementation of MIS.

AMP Consultants Ltd, in association with JMP Consultants Ltd and Transport Research Laboratory (TRL) of the UK was commissioned by Department of Land Transport (DLT) to provide detailed advice on Information Institutional, Safety and Service Integration Issues.

AMP Consultants has developed the Management Information System (MIS) to be an efficient tools for serving executives' activities in controlling, evaluation, monitoring, decision making, and administration of DLT.

