

Ayutthaya Infrastructure Project

Client: Department of Archaeology, Royal Thai Government

Period of Appointment: 1997 to 1998

During 1997-1998, the Department of Archaeology appointed AMP Consultants Ltd to develop Ayutthaya Infrastructure Plan aiming at supporting ambitious development plan but at the same time preserving and enhancing the unique outline and heritage of Ayutthaya, the former capital of Thailand which was declared a World Heritage Site in 1996.

Actual & Services provided by AMP Consultants Ltd were:

- Road Transport Integration
- Transportation Planning and Traffic Calming
- Air Quality and Noise Forecasts
- Infrastructure, Drainage and Highway Engineering
- Streetscape and Landscape
- Tender Document

In order to provide recommendations for

- Strategic Guidance in relation to transport public utilities and environmental issues.
- A Conceptual Plan and Cost Report for infrastructure replacement.
- A Turnkey Tender Document for implementation of measures to mitigate environmental degradation.

