

The Feasibility Study of Airport Logistics Park (Pilot Project) in Thailand

Client: Department of Airports

Period of Appointment: 2013-2014

AMP Consultants Ltd. was commissioned by the Department of Airports to conduct a feasibility study of an Airport Logistics Park (Pilot Project) at Suvarnabhumi Airport. Its key objective was to optimize the air cargo businesses at the airport. The works included (i) demand forecast using the “Backcasting Technique”, (ii) engineering study and cost estimation, (iii) economic and financial evaluation, (iv) constructing PPP program according to the requirement of the Private Investments in State Undertakings Act, B.E.2013, and (v) conceptual design.

Key Activities: Engineering study, cost estimation, demand forecast, economic and financial evaluation, PPP program assessment, risk analysis, Value-for-Money Analysis, conceptual design.

