

First Stage Expressway Extension

Client: The Expressway and Rapid Transit Authority of Thailand (ETA)

Period of Appointment: 1996 - 1997

The Expressway and Rapid Transit Authority of Thailand (ETA) has appointed AMPConsultants Ltd with JMP Consultants Ltd., Upham International Corporation, Kraiwin Co., Ltd, The Environment Research Institute of Chulalongkorn University and the Faculty of Public Health, Mahidol University to review the ETA feasibility study, undertake the environmental impact assessment and to select contractor for the design and construction of an new elevated expressway. The project route will be extension from the First Stage Expressway System, Dao Kanong segment to Bang Khun Thien and Samut Sakhon. The aims of the project were to solve the traffic congestion problems in the area and also to extend the expressway network to connect to the southern part of country.

AMP Consultants Ltd provide consultancy services in transport engineering, traffic engineering, traffic signing and road marking.

The work falls into five categories.

- Review of the Feasibility Study
- Review of Route Alignment
- Preliminary Engineering Design and preparation TOR and tender documentation for turn key tendering
- Environmental Impact Assessment
- Production of Terms of Reference

