

The Study on Strengthening Cross-Border Freight Transport Capability to Enhance Thailand's Strategy on becoming Indo-China Transport Hub Project

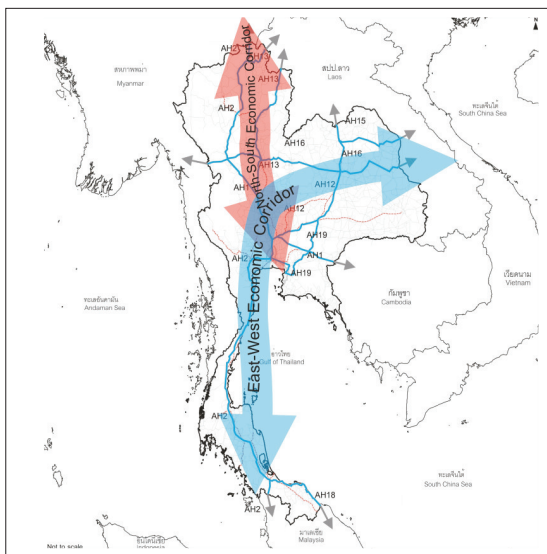

Client: Office of Transport and Traffic Policy & Planning (OTP)

Period of Appointment: 2005 - 2006

AMP Consultants Ltd. is commissioned to advise OTP on the Study on Strengthening Cross-Border Freight Transport Capability to enhance Thailand on becoming Indo-China Transport Hub.

The main tasks consists of

- Assessment of trend in cross-border trade within Indo-China, including Southern China.
- Formulate National Strategy for Thailand to become Indo-China transport hub through strengthening
 - (I) economic cooperation with neighboring countries,
 - (II) management system for freight transport, and
 - (III) infrastructure linkage.
- Formulate investment strategy for transport network development, emphasizing on public-private partnerships.
- Conduct training in related subjects.

These policy and strategic plans , which are provided government agencies and state enterprises under the Ministry of Transport can systematically implement to achieve their Ministry and Country's targets, are formulated in accordance with the Transport and Traffic Master Plan , the National Economic and Social Development Plan and Government Policies as well as in close collaboration among agencies involving in setting up negotiation stances and measures in international and regional organizations in the field of international transport e.g. GMS, IMT-GT and ACMECS.

