

The Feasibility Study of Bangkok - Nakornratchasima High Speed Rail Project

Client: The State Railway of Thailand
Period of Appointment: 2005

AMP Consultants Ltd together with Southeast Asia Technology Ltd, Epsilon Ltd. and Scott Wilson Kirkpatrick (Thailand) Ltd are appointed to carry out the Feasibility Study of Bangkok Nakornratchasima High Speed Rail Project. The project includes the provision of best selected route based on engineering, economics, finance and environment. Moreover, investment budget, project benefits and revenue, optimal choice of High Speed Rail technology, service, investment plan and project operation are included in this project.

Riderships forecast for alternatives and sensitivity test are based on fares (including optimal fare structure), services, economics are major tasks of AMPConsultants Ltd.

