

Transport Data and Model Center III

Client: Office of Transport and Traffic Policy & Planning (OTP)

Period of Appointment: 2004 - 2005

AMP Consultants Ltd. is commissioned to advise OTP on its improvement and maintenance of database system, information system and traffic and transport models under the Transport Data and Model Center III Project.

Works include improvement of process and detail of database system, improvement of National Assignment Model (NAM) and Bangkok City Model (BMR-ECM), develop model for small area, planning and traffic management, and training of OTP's staffs.

This study has been reviewed transport database, extended and updated database up to 21 sections including environment, road safety, land use and infrastructure, developed strategic and congestion transport models.