

Cost Structure Study of Land Freight Transport

Client: National Economic and Social Development Board (NESDB)

Period of Appointment: 2000 to 2001

This is a project commissioned by NESDB with the assistance from The World Bank. JMP Consultants together with AMP Consultants Ltd and Hughes Economic Planning were appointed to carry out a Cost Structure Study of Land Freight Transport.

The project includes the provision of recommendations for

A national database of land freight transport.

A proper understanding of the cost structure of land freight transport, and

Strengthening the capability of the staff of the Infrastructure Project Division, NESDB by improving its knowledge and skills related to land freight transport

AMP Consultants Ltd's work cover

Evaluation of the legal and institutional issues and the existing situation of the land freight transport industry.

Database development and model validation

Preparation for further studies.

Tutorials and training of NESDB's staff.

